Q26. On another topic, the last New York State Constitutional Convention was held in 1967. Since then, New Yorkers have twice voted against having a constitutional convention - in both 1977 and 1997. In 2017, New Yorkers will again have an opportunity to vote on whether or not there should be a State Constitutional Convention. How much have you heard about the vote this year on whether or not to have a constitutional convention? Would you say you have heard a great deal, some, not very much, or nothing at all?

Q28. Another question on the November ballot for New York voters proposes to amend the State Constitution. Specifically, voters will be asked whether they approve the following amendment: Quote, the proposed amendment to section 7 of Article 2 of the State Constitution would allow a court to reduce or revoke the pension of a public officer who is convicted of a felony that has a direct and actual relationship to the performance of the public officer's duties, unquote. Will you vote "yes" or "no" on this proposed amendment to the State Constitution?
