Q49. Some have said that one reason many people, especially many people of color cannot break free from poverty is that the deck is stacked against them, that is, that there are public policies and practices in the market place that advantage white people and disadvantage people of color. To what extent do you agree or disagree with this position?

Q50. Some have said that many people remain in poverty not due to their own choices or because they do not share the same values as other people but rather because living in poverty is so stressful that it causes a kind of trauma that affects the poor and the decisions they make. Q60. (If not born in United States) Many people in our community that we have talked to today are not currently U.S. citizens. Some have green cards, some have visas, and others don't. I assure you that we do not have any relationship with U.S. authorities. Your identity will never be revealed, this is for research purposes only. Are you...
