Q31. On another topic, last month a special pay commission created by the Governor and Legislature raised the base pay of state legislators from $79,500 to $110,000 annually, increasing to $130,000 in 2021. At the same time, the commission limited legislators' outside income to no more than 15 percent of their legislative salary, and the commission eliminated nearly all stipends for legislative leadership positions. Overall, do you approve or disapprove of the pay commission's actions to increase legislative salaries and limit outside income and legislative stipends?
