Q24. As you may know, last year a pay commission increased the salary of state legislators - which hadn't increased since 1999 - from $79,500 to $110,000 this year, increasing to $130,000 in 2021. As part of the budget this year, the Legislature approved an increase in the Governor's salary - as recommended by the pay commission - from $179,000 to $200,000 this year, and $250,000 in 2021. Do you support or oppose the Legislature increasing the Governor's salary?

Q25. Another action in this year's state budget was the creation of a commission to implement a system of public campaign financing for candidates for statewide and legislative races. The commission is required to put forward a plan for public campaign financing by December 1. Its plan will become law unless changed by the Legislature and Governor before the end of the year. This new public campaign finance system will cost the state up to one hundred million annually. Based on what you know, do you support or oppose the public campaign finance plan included in the state budget?
